

What products are eligible to enter?

In the context of the Australian Business Awards program, the term "product" refers to products and services currently available in the Australian marketplace. This includes consumer, business to business (B2B) and financial products and services. They must be a complete product, not part thereof and in full commercial production prior to submitting your entry. Please refer to the applicable entry guidelines for more detailed information.