

What is the judging methodology?

Entries are evaluated in accordance with the product award framework whereby products are separated by product classification and scored against a range of judging criteria. The International Classification of Goods and Services (Nice Agreement) is utilised to segment products and services to their respective classification.