

Eligibility for the Australian Business Awards

Contributed by Media Director
Monday, 14 January 2008

Eligibility: Any company or organisation operating in Australia, private or public, regardless of size or industry is eligible to enter. This includes multi-national subsidiaries, government departments, agencies or bodies, franchisors and non-government organisations. read more

Industry Classifications: All entrants are adjudicated within their respective industry group. The Australian & New Zealand Standard Industrial Classification (ANZSIC) is utilised to segment recipients to their respective industry. read more

Award Categories: There are twenty award categories for each industry classification. Entrants may participate in multiple award categories (a maximum of 4), however a separate entry must be submitted for each award category entered. read more